

Frequency – STARSET

I was
Scanning through the skies
And missed the
Static in your eyes
Something
Blocking your reception
It's
Distorting our connection
With the
Distance amplified
Was it all just synthesize?
And now the silence screams
That you are gone
You've tuned me out
I've lost your frequency
(INSTRUMENTAL)
There's something here that's broken
There's something here with no end
It's paralyzed
It's in your eyes
'Cause I can feel your soul fade
I can feel your heart change
It falls out of phase with mine
While you oscillate inside
Or is it only in my head?
I was
Scanning through the skies
And missed the
Static in your eyes
Something
Blocking your reception
It's
Distorting our connection
With the
Distance amplified
Was it all just synthesize?

And now the silence screams
That you are gone
You've tuned me out
I've lost your frequency
Left inside a half-life
Irradiated insides
These memories
They never leave
I bared my soul for you
And all I got was static
My heart was bulletproof
'til you took off the jacket
I was
Scanning through the skies
And missed the
Static in your eyes
Something
Blocking your reception
It's
Distorting our connection
With the distance amplified
Was it all just synthesize?
And now the silence screams
That you are gone
You've tuned me out,
I've lost your frequency
(Your frequency)
Castaway
My cries are blocked by the horizon
Suffocate
I was doing this ALL FOR YOU!
I'M THE SHALLOWS
STUCK IN THE GALLOWES
I TRIED TO SAVE YOU
NOW I'M SWALLOWED
YOU WANTED WAR
I AM THE WAR
LIAR!
(INSTRUMENTAL)
Something

Blocking your reception
It's
Distorting our connection
With the distance amplified
Was it all just synthesize?
And now the silence screams
That you are gone
You've tuned me out,
I've lost your frequency
