

Give That Wolf A Banana – Subwoolfer

Not sure I told you,
But I really like your teeth
That hairy coat of yours
With nothing underneath
Not sure you have a name,
So I will call you Keith
See where you're going,
But I don't know where you've been
Is that saliva or blood
Drippin' off your chin?
If you don't like the name Keith
I'ma call you Jim
And before that wolf eats my grandma
Give that wolf a banana
Give that wolf
And before that wolf eats my grandma
Give that wolf a banana
Give that wolf
Give that wolf
Banana
I like the scent of every meal on your breath
That hunger in you,
I'm in danger now, I guess
Let's go to grandma's,
You say grandma tastes the best
And before that wolf eats my grandma
Give that wolf a banana
Give that wolf
And before that wolf eats my grandma
Give that wolf a banana
Give that wolf
Give that wolf
Someone give that wolf a banana
Someone give that wolf a banana
Someone give that wolf a banana
And before that wolf eats my grandma

Give that wolf a banana
Give that wolf
(I want your grandma, yum-yum)
Someone give that wolf a banana
And before that wolf eats my grandma
Give that wolf a banana
Give that wolf
Give that wo-o-olf
Someone give that wolf a banana
Someone give that wolf a banana
Not sure I told you,
Not sure you have a name,
So I will call you Keith
