

Lifesaver – Sunrise Avenue

I find it too hard to win
Back on the ground again
I feel like giving in
But you're my second wind

Don't you ever tire
Facing all my fires
I don't need no one but you right now
So, I say

Oh, my friend, you're holding out your hand
I take it like an oar from the depth
Hey, lifesaver, I'm drowning in despair
But you're fighting for me right until the end
You pull me back to land and save me once again

You help me wash away
The insane mistakes I made
And I see it in your face
My only source of grace

No, I don't take for granted
All the time you've wasted
Making sacrifices for a fool
So, I say

Oh, my friend, you're holding out your hand
I take it like an oar from the depth
Hey, lifesaver, I'm drowning in despair
But you're fighting for me right until the end
You pull me back to land and save me once again

You lift me higher, you hold the fire
You make me strong enough to stay
You lift me higher, you hold the fire
Made up stand tall

But without you I'd fall

Oh, my friend, you're holding out your hand

I take it like an oar from the depth

Hey, lifesaver, I'm drowning in despair

But you're fighting for me right until the end

You pull me back to land and save me once again

You lift me higher, you hold the fire

You make me strong enough to stay
