

Memorial – Susanne Sundfør

Blasting, blazing
Stars exploding
A cosmic war, raging in the sky
But all I could hear was your last goodbye
Hope you'll come back again
Even though I know, you are heartless
'Cause you took off my dress
And you never put it on again
It's overrated, it doesn't do it for me
I dreamt the gods descended
I dreamt that time had ended
Planets colliding
Baby, one day, we'll be free
But all I ever wanted was for you to want me
Hope you'll come back again
Even now I know, you are heartless
'Cause you took off my dress
And you never put it on, oh
You never put it on
No, you never put it on again
