

The Eulogy – Taking Back My Soul

Time to watch world through my eyes
See the light everytime i want to die
Close your mind to feel my bite
Rise your glass and have a fun
Couse you start to breathing,
Your heartbeat is going to rise up
You are falling down, to going down, down
Better tear me apart if i have to watch it
I'm useless, i cannot help
You are lock in

Don't worry, dude, i know
You're in the trouble i don't want to know
When i start to ask, you're going to start leaving
When i start to worring you start to bleeding

Life's like perfection when we're perfectly stoned,
Music loud, people, croud, and all problems gone
Stash is big, attention rise up to the sky,
Stash is little, people gone and you're alone

Don't worry, dude, i know
You're in the trouble i don't want to know
But why does it take so long?
I know you're not strong enough

Dude, i love you so much
That i couldn't escape from you
Coudn't leave this 4 walls, and go,
I can't forget u
I know you can't believe it,
But i am your reflection
This broken mirror i can't fix
And i cannot forget u

Could u remember those words you've say

That's everything is ok
That wounds we can open by sharpe blades,
And we can close it by the love we'll make

Life's brutal, life want eat you all u know that,
So try to figure it out and start to hold on it

Don't worry, dude, i know
You're in the trouble i don't want to know
But why does it take so long?
I know you're not strong enough
Could u remember those words you've say
That's everything is ok
That wounds we can open by sharpe blades,
And we can close it by the love we'll make

And you're gone, you're dead, you're flying,
I cannot believe it,
I dive in tears and blood, my heart is stop beetin'
My view is changing when i see you in the coffin,
I close my eyes
I hear you in my head, you still living,
But you buried alive

Don't worry, dude, i know
You're in the trouble i don't want to know
But why does it take so long?
I know you're not strong enough

Wait for moment,
Cause i want to really apologize you,
That i had nothing do and
You had to walk alone through
I'll allways remember time, when we're free,
Booze, reagee, stash, and wine we had everything

Don't worry, dude, i know
You're in the trouble i don't want to know
But you have to listen to me close,
You're not death, life isn't yours

Don't worry, dude, i know
You're in the trouble i don't want to know
But reaper knows that all,
That someone got to go!
