

Keep The Faith – Tamara Gachechiladze

Who told you to hide behind the veil?
Who told you to get out of the way?
Don't you let them steal your dreams
Feel the courage, spread your wings and breathe
Keep the faith, keep the faith
Remember you are not alone
Hold my hand and come along
You keep the faith, keep the faith
Don't let nobody turn you down
Even if the world is rough
Who told you that I reached the point of no regrets?
Who told you that my life is a book of fairy tales?
I have lost many times
But I've never lost my hope
Keep the faith
Keep the faith
Remember you are not alone
Hold my hand and come along
You keep the faith, keep the faith
Don't let nobody turn you down
Even if the world is rough
Oh oh oh oh
Ooh! You got to stand on your own
Crowd hear me out
The world needs more love
Keep the faith
Keep the faith
Remember you are not alone
Hold my hand and come along
You keep the faith, keep the faith
Don't let nobody turn you down
Even if the world is rough
Oh oh ohhh keep the faith
