

The Chair – The 69 Eyes

Just walk
Away from these dreams
And talk
The pain what it seems
Angel of my revelation
I don't really want to let you
Walk
Away from these dreams
You gotta turn it all over
You gotta turn it all over
All over again
Kick the chair right down under me
Leave me hanging alone in misery
Kick the chair right down under me
Leave me hanging alone in misery
Away from these dreams
And talk
The pain what it means
Angel of my revelation
I don't really want to hurt you
So walk
Away from these dreams
You gotta turn it all over
You gotta turn it all over
All over again
Kick the chair right down under me
Leave me hanging alone in misery
Kick the chair right down under me
Leave me hanging alone in misery
Kick the chair right down under me
Leave me hanging alone in misery
Kick the chair right down under me
Leave me hanging alone
In misery
Kick the chair right down under me

Leave me hanging alone in misery
Kick the chair right down under me
Leave me hanging alone
Kick the chair right down under me
Leave me hanging alone in misery
Kick the chair right down under me
Leave me hanging alone in misery
Kick the chair right down under me
Leave me hanging alone in misery
Kick the chair right down under me
Leave me hanging alone
In misery!
Kick the chair right down,
Kick the chair right down,
In misery
Kick the chair right down,
In misery!
Misery will not comin'
