

Obsession – The Army of Lovers

(Obsession)

I could wait night and day
Sigh your name when I pray
In my heart night and day
Til you come my way
I could wait night and day
Be the sky blue or gray
In my heart night and day
For your love to stay

(Obsession)

You got that magic in your eyes
Shining wherever you go
Through a lover's paradise
Trust every sign when I'm so
Close to where my heart belongs
Like in heaven

I could wait night and day
Sigh your name when I pray
In my heart night and day
Til you come my way
I could wait night and day
Be the sky blue or gray
In my heart night and day
For your love to stay

(Obsession)

I can't help falling into a trance
Losing my senses I know
You're my hero in advance
Trust every sign when I'm so
Close to where my heart belongs

Like in heaven

I could wait night and day
Sigh your name when I pray
In my heart night and day
Til you come my way
I could wait night and day
Be the sky blue or gray
In my heart night and day
For your love to stay

(Obsession)

There ain't no promises
Ain't no commitments
But how cruel can love be
How cruel to a broken heart like mine
There ain't no right
There ain't no wrong
But as long as hope survives
I'll stay alive

I could wait night and day
Sigh your name when I pray
In my heart night and day
Til you come my way
Be the sky blue or gray
In my heart night and day

I could wait night and day
Sigh your name when I pray
In my heart night and day
Til you come my way
Be the sky blue or gray
In my heart night and day

For your love to stay

I could wait night and day
Sigh your name when I pray
In my heart night and day
Til you come my way
Be the sky blue or gray
In my heart night and day
For your love to stay

I could wait night and day
Sigh your name when I pray
In my heart night and day
Til you come my way
