G.Y.E. (Gave you everything) – The Boogie Town

I still count the days
In hope you'll return to me
Mm-hmm
For every string you broke
I planted a million thorns
Inside of me
And I gave you everything
You decided to be free
Now can't you tell
You took all of me
And my heart only bleeds
Love, I'll never be the same
Deep inside, there's a place
To grow only bitterness
Mm-hm
Now I know I can rest my head
Without a frown on your face
And I gave you everything
You decided to be free
Now can't you tell
You took all of me
And my heart only bleeds
Love, I'll never be the same
And I would give anything
Just to know where he could be
And I thought he was my friend
So now I take a chance
I decided to be free
And I gave you everything
I gave you everything
You decided to be free
And I gave you everything
I gave you everything
