

I NEVER FORGET – TheDarkWriter

I will always remember the moments
Moments when you promised me that We will be happy forever
I will never forget how well we were together
Tell me why you left me so without saying goodbye?
Do you know how you hurt me?

Friends say me- he is not worthy of you
I was dumb that I did not believe them

Now mus be strong
However it really me that is not the same long been me
A part of my soul waned
No-I am no longer the girl at once
All my happiness is gone
Gone with you
I hope that once again find relief

Friends say me- he is not worthy of you
I was dumb that I did not believe them

Slowly flowing time of our separation
It feels like a leaf in the wind
Tell me why you left me - if I did something wrong

Friends say me- he is not worthy of you
I was dumb that I did not believe them

I know I have to be strong
I hope that one day someone will love me
As much as I loved you
I am aware that I start not live again
Until you forget you

Friends say me- he is not worthy of you
I was dumb that I did not believe them
