

Lemuria – Therion

In the ocean, deep down
Under raging waves, wrapped
In memories, you'll find
Wrecks of stately ships, they all went astray
Captain, did you find
Land of Mu, Eldorado for the seaman?
Or did you sink in dreams
(and) lose your ship
In the Sirens' symphony?
When the sailman's sailing away
He shows that dream of Lemuria is true
A land lost he will find again
Hear the call from depth of the anemone song
Do you dare to enter the ship?
Hear the call from below of
An underwater world
Land of Mu is close to the stars
In the arms of the sea you
Will live as hypnotized
Call of Narayana, the seven-headed one
Lemuria, rise!
When the sailman's sailing away
He shows that dream of Lemuria is true
A land lost he will find again
Hear the call from depth of the anemone song
Do you dare to enter the ship?
Hear the call from below
Of an underwater world
Land of Mu is close to the stars
In the arms of the sea
You will live as hypnotized
