

Maybe I'm Dreaming – Thomas Anders

(We were made for love)

(Oh yeah)

Waves of emotion - I can feel them inside

I see devotion - see your heart open wide

Loving and heartache are like sister and

Brother

They aren't far away, babe, oh, they're so

Close to each other

Here in this moment, here by your side

I don't wanna think about goodbyes

Maybe I'm dreaming

My heart is deceiving my mind

(We were made for love)

Maybe I'm dreaming

Nothing will stop us at start

Oh this time

Love and heartache are like sister and

Brother

(Sister and brother)

They're not far away, babe

Oh, they're so close to each other

Here in this moment, lost in your eyes

I don't wanna think about goodbyes

Maybe I'm dreaming

My heart is deceiving my mind

(We were made for love)

Maybe I'm dreaming

Nothing will stop us at start

Oh this time
