

I Don't Wanna Lose You – Tina Turner

Mhmm

Mhmm-hmm

Women of a certain age
They learn to rely
And judge all his responses
Having played the mating game
She doesn't waste time
'Cause all that she wants is

Real and honest emotion
Ones he can't help but show
Though I hardly know your name
I know about love and I know

I don't wanna lose you
I don't even wanna say goodbye
Oh no
I just wanna hold on to this
True love, true love

Women who have made mistakes
Are a little afraid
They don't like taking chances
She will play the waiting game
She's never impressed
By those manly advances

I know I've only just met you
Maybe I should know better
But when you look at me that way
There's something inside
That's so right

I don't wanna lose you
I don't even wanna say goodbye

Oh no
I just wanna hold on to this
True love, true love

I don't wanna lose you
And I always wanna feel this way
Oh yeah
'Cause every time I'm with you
I feel true love
True love, true love

Tell me you're real
And you're not pretending
Let's make a deal
'Cause my heart's depending on you
Oh, baby

I don't wanna lose you
I don't even wanna say goodbye
Oh no
I just wanna hold on to this
True love, true love

Mhmm, I don't wanna lose you
And I always wanna feel this way
Oh yeah
'Cause every time I'm with you
I feel true love
True love, true love

Oh, I don't wanna lose you
I don't even wanna say goodbye
Oh no
I just wanna hold on to this
True love, true love

I don't wanna lose you
And I always wanna feel this way
'Cause every time I'm with you

I feel true love
True love, true love

Słowa: Albert Hammond, Graham Lyle
Muzyka: Albert Hammond, Graham Lyle
Rok wydania: 1989
Płyta: Foreign Affair