

Break my broken heart – Winona Oak

If I could I would've warned you
But it's scaring me how it all can't stop
It's so easy 'till there's no way out
If I could I wouldn't tell you
But it honestly doesn't matter much
'Cause I know you probably figured out
Fools falling in the dark like crazy
You know, nothing you can do will save me
No, might as well
Break my broken heart
Give me all you got, all you got
Break my broken heart
Watch me fall apart, fall apart
Ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh, I'm still breathing
Ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh, so what's one more scar
Break my broken heart
Can we be this way forever?
Got your silhouette locked inside my head
Can we be the ones to last as stone?
Fools falling in the dark like crazy
You know, nothing you can do will save me
No, might as well
Break my broken heart
Give me all you got, all you got
Break my broken heart
Watch me fall apart, fall apart
Ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh, I'm still breathing
Ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh, so what's one more scar
Break my broken heart
Go on, go on
Go on, go on
Go on, go on
Break my broken heart
Give me all you got, all you got
Break my broken heart
Watch me fall apart, fall apart

Ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh, I'm still breathing
Ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh, so what's one more scar
Break my broken heart
