

My man – Winona Oak

I see the way you work the room
Know you'll be talking to me soon
About the things you think you know about
You can try out all your lines
Buy me drinks and waste your time
What you want is what you'll leave without
And I, I know your type,
I think we met before
You just want somebody so you're not alone
I know that you're so cold
And my body is warm
But it's not gonna be me
Damn
You think that you're so hardcore,
You're the man
Keep lookin' at me like you've got a chance
But I will never love you like you do, no
Never like you do, no
Ooh, yeah
Think it's time to move, yeah
Baby, good for you, yeah
You'll never be my man
I've had my fill of broken men
Seen love come and go again
I know better than to lose myself
So when you're coming way too strong
I can tell there's something wrong
I can't help, you have to fix yourself
And I, I know your type,
I think we met before
You just want somebody so you're not alone
I know that you're so cold
And my body is warm
But it's not gonna be me
Damn
You think that you're so hardcore,

You're the man
Keep lookin' at me like you've got a chance
But I will never love you like you do, no
Never like you do, no
Please
You really thought you'd get me on my knees
I hate to be the one to crush your dreams
But I will never love you like you do, no
Never like you do, no
Ooh, yeah
Think it's time to move, yeah
Ooh, yeah
Think it's time to move, yeah
Think it's time to move, yeah
