

Errors of My Way – Wishbone Ash

I didn't know what day it was that day,
Felt just like falling
Down on my knees to pray
Looked at myself, and all that I could say
Was, "I think I see the errors of my way"
There in the glass
There was something caught my eye,
Although I try through my sighing not to cry
See where I am, and what I try to say,
Yes we'll look at the errors of my way
Guess I got no one around to pull me through
I just need someone to turn to, yes, I do
Doin' my best just to change my yesterday,
Then I won't have no more errors of my way
