Where have you buried all your children?

Tell me so I say

All the arrows that you've stolen

Split in half, now bum and broken

Like your heart that was so eager to be hid

You can't keep them all caged

They will fight and run away

Mother, tell me so I say

Forest walls and starry ceilings

Barren curtains that you're weaving

Like the stories

That you keep inside your head

She can't keep them all safe

They will die and be afraid

Mother, tell me so I say

(Mother, tell me so I say)
