

Magic Knight Rearth – Yuzurenai Negai

As we go along, the future holds eternity
We'll hold that wish close inside our heart
It will never die
See the sunset dance across the ocean in
Crimson tide
A wonderful feeling
I just want the wind to take me somewhere
Far away
I've cleared impossible hurdles before
Never losing my way
And I won't let this hold me back now
Whose to blame if I don't give it my best?
It's all up me
As we go along, the future holds eternity
We'll hold that wish close inside our hearts
It will never die
The colors of your dreams create a precious
Map to lead you up towards the light
