

What I Am – ZAYN

I've been drinking absinthe,
I just did the math It ain't
Addin' up,
I've had enough of
Runnin' 'round this board game,
You can know your own name I
Won't give it up
Am I crazy?
Am I foolish?
Am I stupid
For playing these games with you?
If I told you I loved you,
Would you say that it's f- up?
If I told you they're flying,
Would you say that you looked up?
Don't take me for what I'm sayin',
Just take me for what I am
'Cause this is where I'm stayin',
My two feet are in the sand
I've been reading old shit-
And I can't make sense of it
Ain't no conspiracy that can save me
Livin' in the moment
Feels good to me 'til it hurts
And I need somebody
Am I crazy?
Am I foolish?
Am I stupid
For playing these games with you?
If I told you I loved you,
Would you say that it's f- up?
If I told you they're flying,
Would you say that you looked up?
Don't take me for what I'm sayin',
Just take me for what I am
'Cause this is where I'm stayin',

My two feet are in the sand
Take me as I am,
I'm tired of dancin'
Around the point
Sharp and it is jagged
Like the shape of glass
And it steals my voice
If I told you I loved you,
Would you say that it's f- up?
If I told you they're flying,
Would you say that you looked up?
Don't take me for what I'm sayin',
Just take me for what I am
'Cause this is where I'm stayin',
My two feet are in the sand
If I told you I loved you,
Would you say that it's f- up?
If I told you they're flying,
Would you say that you looked up?
Don't take me for what I'm sayin',
Just take me for what I am
'Cause this is where I'm stayin',
My two feet are in the sand
