

Senza una donna – Zucchero & Paul Young

I change the world, i change the world
I change the world, i wanna change the world
This ain't the way,
I spend my mornings baby
Come stai?
You been with him,
Now you come back lady
What's he like?
I just sit, and watch the ocean
By myself, even doing my own cookin'
You can laugh, you've forgiven, but
I'm no longer frightened, to be livin'
Senza una donna,
No more pain and no sorrow
Senza una donna
I'll make it through tomorrow
Senza una donna,
Givin' me torture and bliss
Without a woman, better like this
There is no way,
That you can buy me baby
Don't make fun
You got to dig, a little deeper lady
(in the heart?)
Yeah, if you have one
Here's my heart, feel the power
Look at me,
Look at me
I'm a flower
You can laugh, you're forgiven, but
I'm no longer frightened, to be livin'
Senza una donna
No more pain and no sorrow
Senza una donna
I'll make it through tomorrow
Senza una donna,
